

NEW from JUSTICE (ICJ British Section)

JUSTICE Journal

Essential reading for all interested in human rights and law reform

The JUSTICE Journal is a new six-monthly publication. It aims to promote debate on topical issues relating to human rights and the rule of law.

The journal focuses on JUSTICE's core areas of expertise and concern:

- human rights
- criminal justice
- asylum
- equality
- EU justice and home affairs
- UK legal system

- Launch issue
Spring 2004
- 2 issues per year
- £60 / $120 / €120
annual subscription
- ISSN 1743-2472

Editor:

Roger Smith
Director, JUSTICE

Editorial Advisory Board:

Philip Havers QC
One Crown Office Row

Allan Levy QC
17 Bedford Row

Barbara Hewson
Hardwicke Civil

Professor Carol Harlow
London School of Economics

Anthony Edwards
TV Edwards

Contents of first issue – 2004 Volume 1 Number 1

Editorial

Constitutional Reform

Papers

Iraq: the Pax Americana and the law – Lord Alexander of Weedon QC

Necessity and Detention: internment under the Anti-Terrorism Crime and Security Act 2001 – Eric Metcalfe

Charting the new territory of the EU's bill of rights – Marilyn Goldberg

Test case strategies and legal pressure groups – Roger Smith

Articles

Identity cards: next steps – Rachel Brailsford

The twin towers of democracy and human rights in the EU post September 11th – Marisa Leaf

The defence of provocation – in need of radical reform – Janet Arkinstall

Equality re-imagined – Gay Moon

Book reviews

Asylum Law and Practice M Symes and P Jorro

English Lawyers between Market and State: the politics of professionalism R Abel

Causes of Action: civil law and social justice P Pleasence and others

JUSTICE Briefings

September 2003 to February 2004

For further information, please contact:

JUSTICE, 59 Carter Lane, London EC4V 5AQ, UK

www.justice.org.uk

Tel 020 7329 5100

Fax 020 7329 5055

E-mail admin@justice.org.uk