- (2) Column 3 of the table contains additional information that is not part of this Act. Information in this column may be added to or edited in any published version of this Act.

3 Schedule(s)

Each Act that is specified in a Schedule to this Act is amended or repealed as set out in the applicable items in the Schedule concerned, and any other item in a Schedule to this Act has effect according to its terms.

4 Entitlements from 1 July 2008

- (1) If:
- (a) a person would have been entitled to one or more payments (the lost payments) under an Act that is amended by Schedule 1, 2, 3 or 5 to this Act if the relevant Schedule had commenced on 1 July 2008; and
 - (b) because the Schedule did not commence until after 1 July 2008, the person is not entitled to the payment or payments; and
 - (c) the person makes an application to the Finance Minister for one or more payments (the replacement payments) to compensate the person for the lost payments;
- the Finance Minister must make a determination, in accordance with subsection (4), to fully compensate the person.
- (2) If:
- (a) a person would have been entitled to one or more payments (the lost payments) under the Military Superannuation and Benefits Act 1991 if the first amendment of the Trust Deed under that Act that is made after the commencement of this section had commenced on 1 July 2008; and
 - (b) because that amendment did not commence until after 1 July 2008, the person is not entitled to the payment or payments; and
 - (c) the person makes an application to the Finance Minister for one or more payments (the replacement payments) to compensate the person for the lost payments;
- the Finance Minister must make a determination, in accordance with subsection (4), to fully compensate the person.

- (3) If:
- (a) a person would have been entitled to one or more payments (the lost payments) under the Superannuation Act 1990 if the first amendment of the Trust Deed under that Act that is made after the commencement of this section had commenced on 1 July 2008; and
 - (b) because that amendment did not commence until after 1 July 2008, the person is not entitled to the payment or payments; and
 - (c) the person makes an application to the Finance Minister for one or more payments (the replacement payments) to compensate the person for the lost payments;
- the Finance Minister must make a determination, in accordance with subsection (4), to fully compensate the person.
- (4) A determination by the Finance Minister under this subsection must:
- (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) set out:
 - (i) the amount and timing of the replacement payments; or
 - (ii) the method of determining the amount and timing of the replacement payments.
- (5) An application must be in writing in the form approved by the Finance Minister.
- (6) To avoid doubt, a determination of the Finance Minister that a person is entitled to one or more replacement payments does not affect the entitlements of any other person under an Act amended by Schedule 1, 2, 3 or 5 to this Act, the Military Superannuation and Benefits Act 1991 or the Superannuation Act 1990.
- (7) Replacement payments are to be made out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, which is appropriated accordingly.
- (8) A determination made under this section is not a legislative instrument.
- (9) In this section:
- Finance Minister means the Minister who administers the Financial Management and Accountability Act 1997.

After “marital” (wherever occurring), insert “or couple”.

52 Application of amendments of the Superannuation Act 1976

The amendments of the Superannuation Act 1976 made by this Schedule apply in relation to a benefit payable under that Act in respect of a person who dies on or after the commencement of this Schedule, if, at the time of his or her death, the deceased person was:

- (a) an eligible employee (within the meaning of that Act); or
- (b) a deferred benefit member (within the meaning of Division 4A of Part V of that Act); or
- (c) a retirement pensioner (within the meaning of that Act).

Schedule 2—Attorney-General's amendments

Part 1—Amendment of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901

Acts Interpretation Act 1901

1 After section 22

Insert:

22A References to de facto partners

For the purposes of a provision of an Act that is a provision in which de facto partner has the meaning given by this Act, a person is the de facto partner of another person (whether of the same sex or a different sex) if:

- (a) the person is in a registered relationship with the other person under section 22B; or
- (b) the person is in a de facto relationship with the other person under section 22C.

22B Registered relationships

For the purposes of paragraph 22A(a), a person is in a registered relationship with another person if the relationship between the persons is registered under a prescribed law of a State or Territory as a prescribed kind of relationship.

22C De facto relationships

- (1) For the purposes of paragraph 22A(b), a person is in a de facto relationship with another person if the persons:
 - (a) are not legally married to each other; and
 - (b) are not related by family (see subsection (6)); and
 - (c) have a relationship as a couple living together on a genuine domestic basis.

- (2) In determining for the purposes of paragraph (1)(c) whether 2 persons have a relationship as a couple, all the circumstances of their relationship are to be taken into account, including any or all of the following circumstances:
- (a) the duration of the relationship;
 - (b) the nature and extent of their common residence;
 - (c) whether a sexual relationship exists;
 - (d) the degree of financial dependence or interdependence, and any arrangements for financial support, between them;
 - (e) the ownership, use and acquisition of their property;
 - (f) the degree of mutual commitment to a shared life;
 - (g) the care and support of children;
 - (h) the reputation and public aspects of the relationship.
- (3) No particular finding in relation to any circumstance mentioned in subsection (2) is necessary in determining whether 2 persons have a relationship as a couple for the purposes of paragraph (1)(c).
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), the persons are taken to be living together on a genuine domestic basis if the persons are not living together on a genuine domestic basis only because of:
- (a) a temporary absence from each other; or
 - (b) illness or infirmity of either or both of them.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1), a de facto relationship can exist even if one of the persons is legally married to someone else or is in a registered relationship (within the meaning of section 22B) with someone else or is in another de facto relationship.
- (6) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), 2 persons are related by family if:
- (a) one is the child (including an adopted child) of the other; or
 - (b) one is another descendant of the other (even if the relationship between them is traced through an adoptive parent); or
 - (c) they have a parent in common (who may be an adoptive parent of either or both of them).

For this purpose, disregard whether an adoption is declared void or has ceased to have effect.

- (7) For the purposes of subsection (6), adopted means adopted under the law of any place (whether in or out of Australia) relating to the adoption of children.

Insert:

64AA Special grant of pension where spouse pension would be payable

- (1) If, at any time after the day on which Schedule 3 to the Same-Sex Relationships (Equal Treatment in Commonwealth Laws—Superannuation) Act 2008 commenced (the start day):
 - (a) a pension is not payable to a person under section 57 or 64 of this Act; and
 - (b) a pension benefit:
 - (i) is not payable to the person under Division 1 of Part VI of the Defence Force Retirement and Death Benefits Act 1973, as in force on the start day; but
 - (ii) would have been payable to the person under that Division if a deceased pensioner had been, at the time of his or her death, a recipient member under that Act;the Authority may grant, from a specified date, a pension to the person at a rate and on conditions that the Authority determines in writing, having regard to any matters prescribed and any other matters it considers relevant.
- (2) The Authority must not grant a pension to the person unless the Authority, having regard to any matters prescribed and any other matters it considers relevant, is satisfied that:
 - (a) the person is in necessitous circumstances; or
 - (b) the grant of the pension is otherwise warranted.
- (3) The specified date from which the pension is granted:
 - (a) must not be earlier than the start day; and
 - (b) unless the Authority is satisfied that special circumstances exist that justify an earlier date being specified, must not be earlier than the date the grant is made.
- (4) The rate of the pension must not exceed the rate at which pension would have been payable under this Act to the person from the specified date had the person been, at the date of death of the deceased pensioner, the widow of the deceased pensioner for the purposes of this Act.

- (5) If:
- (a) a pension is paid to a person under section 57 of this Act as a widow of a pensioner; and
 - (b) the Authority grants a pension under this section to another person in respect of the pensioner;
- then, for the purpose of calculating the rate of pension payable to the other person under this section, this Act has effect as if the reference in paragraph 57(1)(a) to five-eighths were a reference to three-eighths.
- (6) A determination made under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.
- (7) The grant of a pension to a person under this section does not affect any other person's entitlement to a pension, or the rate of that pension, under another section of this Act.

64AB Special grant of pension where child's pension would be payable to eligible child

- (1) If, at any time after the day on which Schedule 3 to the Same-Sex Relationships (Equal Treatment in Commonwealth Laws—Superannuation) Act 2008 commenced (the start day):
- (a) a pension is not payable in respect of a person under section 55, 57 or 64 of this Act; and
 - (b) a pension benefit:
 - (i) is not payable to the person under section 42 of the Defence Force Retirement and Death Benefits Act 1973, as in force on the start day; but
 - (ii) would have been payable to the person under that section if a deceased pensioner had been, at the time of his or her death, a recipient member under that Act;
- the Authority may grant, from a specified date, a pension to the person at a rate and on conditions that the Authority determines in writing, having regard to any matters prescribed and any other matters it considers relevant.
- (2) The specified date from which the pension is granted:
- (a) must not be earlier than the start day; and

- (b) unless the Authority is satisfied that special circumstances exist that justify an earlier date being specified, must not be earlier than the date the grant is made.
 - (3) The rate of the pension must not exceed the rate at which pension would have been payable under this Act to the person from the specified date had the person been, at the date of death of the deceased pensioner and at all times after that:
 - (a) the child of the deceased pensioner for the purposes of this Act; and
 - (b) an eligible child for the purposes of this Act.
 - (4) A determination made under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.
 - (5) The grant of a pension to a person under this section does not affect any other person's entitlement to a pension, or the rate of that pension, under another section of this Act.

64AC Special grant of pension where child's pension would be payable to eligible orphan

- (1) If, at any time after the day on which Schedule 3 to the Same-Sex Relationships (Equal Treatment in Commonwealth Laws—Superannuation) Act 2008 commenced (the start day):
 - (a) a pension is not payable in respect of a person under section 55, 57, 58 or 64 of this Act; and
 - (b) a pension benefit:
 - (i) is not payable to the person under section 43 of the Defence Force Retirement and Death Benefits Act 1973, as in force on the start day (the amended Act); but
 - (ii) would have been payable to the person under that section if a deceased pensioner had been, at the time of his or her death, a recipient member under that Act;the Authority may grant, from a specified date, a pension to the person at a rate and on conditions that the Authority determines in writing, having regard to any matters prescribed and any other matters it considers relevant.
- (2) The specified date from which the pension is granted:
 - (a) must not be earlier than the start day; and

- (b) unless the Authority is satisfied that special circumstances exist that justify an earlier date being specified, must not be earlier than the date the grant is made.
- (3) The rate of the pension must not exceed the rate at which pension would have been payable under this Act to the person from the specified date:
 - (a) had the person been, at the date of death of the deceased pensioner and at all times after that:
 - (i) the child of the deceased pensioner for the purposes of this Act; and
 - (ii) an eligible child for the purposes of this Act; and
 - (b) had the person become entitled to a pension under subsection 55(2), 57(4) or 58(1) of this Act at the time when he or she would have first become entitled, in the circumstances set out in subsection (1), to pension benefit under section 43 of the amended Act.
- (4) A determination made under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.
- (5) The grant of a pension to a person under this section does not affect any other person's entitlement to a pension, or the rate of that pension, under another section of this Act.

26 Application of amendment of the Defence Forces Retirement Benefits Act 1948

The amendment of the Defence Forces Retirement Benefits Act 1948 made by this Schedule applies in relation to a pension or benefit payable under that Act in respect of a person who dies on or after the commencement of this Schedule, if, at the time of his or her death, the deceased person was:

- (a) receiving a pension under section 38, 39 or 41 of that Act; or
- (b) receiving a benefit under subsection 51(1) of that Act.
