

Training on Migration, Discrimination and International Human Rights Law

International Commission of Jurists-European Institutions, Praxis and Group 484

AGENDA

22-24 April 2015

Belgrade, Hotel Zira, Mikonos Hall

Wednesday – 22 April 2015

- 9:00 – 9:30                    Arrival of participants
- 9:30 – 10:00                Introductory remarks and roundtable
- 10:00 – 11:00                General concepts of EU human rights law, international human rights law and EU accession: reference to the accession process and Chapter 23. Explanation of the role of the EU Charter and other international HR law bodies and their importance in interpreting Charter rights and EU law. Outline of the main bodies of EU law to be dealt with in this training, related to the target groups: asylum seekers, unaccompanied children – migrants in detention (Massimo Frigo)
- 11:00 – 11:30                Coffee break
- 11:30 – 13:00                Detention of migrants under EU and international human rights law: outline of the basic obligations under EU and international law focused on legality and procedural rights. Presentation of a case study (Roisin Pillay)
- 13:00 – 14:00                LUNCH
- 14:00 – 15:30                The concept of discrimination in economic, social and cultural rights under EU and international human rights law: general principles of the concept, including the fight against hate crimes, focused on the three target groups: asylum seekers, unaccompanied children – migrants in detention (Massimo Frigo)
- 15:30 – 16:00                Coffee break
- 16:00 – 18:00                The right to the highest attainable standard of health under international and EU law, as applied to the target groups and presentation of a case study (Roisin Pillay)

AGENDA
Training on Migration, Discrimination and International Human Rights Law
22-24 April 2015, Belgrade, Hotel Zira, Mikonos Hall

***

Thursday – 23 April 2015

- 09:30 – 10:30      The right to adequate housing under EU and international law
as applied to the target groups (Massimo Frigo)
- 10:30 – 11:00      Coffee break
- 11:00 – 12:30      The right to education under EU and international law, as applied to the target groups and presentation of a case study (Roisin Pillay)
- 12:30 – 13:00      Closure of the public training
- 13:00 – 14:00      LUNCH
- 14:00 – 15:00      Opening of the working session on human rights indicators:
presentation of the outline on detention and of the principles behind HR indicators drafting. Division of the participants in three working group (right to health – right to education – right to housing)
(co-chaired by Massimo Frigo & Roisin Pillay)
- 15:00 – 16:00      Work in working groups
- 16:00 – 16:15      Coffee break
- 17:00                Work in working groups
- 17:00 – 18:00      Report back in plenary

***

Friday – 24 April 2015

- 09:00 – 10:30      Report back in plenary (continued). Each group reports back to plenary. One by one each set of indicators is discussed and filled under the guidance of the trainers
- 10:30 – 11:00      Coffee break
- 12:30                Report back in plenary (continued)
- 12:30 – 13:00      Closure of the working session on indicators
- 13:00 – 14:00      LUNCH
- 14:00 – 15:00      Departures

***

