

TORTURE AND ENFORCED DISAPPEARANCE IN THAILAND THE STATE RESPONSE

Human Rights lawyer Somchai Neelapaijit, subjected to an enforced disappearance in 2004 c. Luke Duggleby

The event follows the Human Rights Committee's examination of Thailand's second periodic report on its implementation of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights on 13 and 14 March 2017. The event will focus on the measures Thailand has taken to implement its international human rights obligations with respect to the prohibition of enforced disappearance, torture and ill-treatment - with a particular focus on the draft Prevention and Suppression of Torture and Enforced Disappearance Act (Draft Law).
