

UN Side Event: Legal liability and enforcement

Wednesday, 16 October 2019, 13h00-15h00,
Room XXIV of Palais des Nations, Geneva.

The ICJ and FRIEDRICH EBERT STIFTUNG invite you to a discussion about the article 6 of the Revised draft of a legally binding instrument on TNCs and other business enterprises to assess its content and coverage. The discussion will have a focus on whether its various paragraphs adequately address issues such as parent company and lead buyer liability in relation to harm caused by their subsidiaries or suppliers to human rights and labor rights.

The panel will feature:

Doug Cassel (by video), University of Notre Dame

Makbule Sahan, International Trade Union Confederation

Markus Krajewski, Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg

Olivier de Schutter, University of Louvain

Moderator:

Ian Seiderman, ICJ Legal and Policy Director