

WEBINAR

Legacy of the state of emergency for access to justice today

Thursday, November 12, 2020

From 14:00 to 16:30 Turkish time – from 12:00 to 14:30 CET

English-Turkish English simultaneous translation will be available.

AGENDA

Introduction
14:00 – 14:10	Roisin Pillay, Director of the ICJ Europe and Central Asia Programme, Feray Salman, General Coordinator of Human Rights Joint Platform
14:10- 14:40	Moderator : Roisin Pillay, Director of the ICJ Europe and Central Asia Programme
	State of Emergency and International Law: standards and opinions of international human rights bodies	Sarah Cleveland Human Rights Law Professor, Columbia University
	Turkey's State of Emergency: Responses of the ECtHR and International Law	Dilek Kurban PhD, JD, Fellow and Lecturer, Fellow, Hertie School
14:40- 15:10	Discussion
15:10-15:20	Coffee break
15:20-15:50	Moderator: Kerem Altıparmak, ICJ Legal Advisor
	The State of Emergency Commission: Review of its decisions by administrative courts	Ziyet Özçelik Lawyer, Ankara Bar Association
	State of Emergency, Dismissals and the role of the Constitutional Court of Turkey	Diğer Demirkent Human Rights School
15:50- 16:20	Discussion
16:20 – 16:30	Results
	Roisin Pillay, Director of the ICJ Europe and Central Asia Programme and Kerem Altıparmak, ICJ Legal Advisor	