

Is the EU living up to its values in relation to migrants and refugees?

The role of national judges and lawyers

Final event of the FAIR PLUS Project

Wednesday 27 April 2022

14.00-15.30

Radisson Red Hotel, Rue d'Italie 35, 1050 Brussels

To attend, please register here: <https://forms.gle/fP6FyM1h7ePwT6iw7>

Event moderated by Alexandros Konstantinou, Senior Lawyer, Greek Council for Refugees

- 14.00 Welcome by Róisín Pillay, Director of the Europe and Central Asia Programme of the ICJ
- 14.05 How can the EU live up to its values in relation to migrants and refugees? How should we be improving the system?
Saskia Bricmont, MEP
- 14.10 Introduction to a short movie on experiences of migrants and refugees in the EU
Aryan Ashory, 17-year-old Afghan poet, filmmaker, human right activist and journalist.
Video: migrant stories – 3 minutes
- 14.20 Brief presentation of the FAIR project
Karolína Babická, Legal Adviser, ICJ
Presentation of the FAIR PLUS Project Training Modules, National trainings, International roundtable, Briefing papers
Video about the FAIR+ project - 5 minutes
- 14.30 The role of national judges and lawyers
Justice Richard Humphreys, Judge, High Court of Ireland
- 14.45 How the EU supports the challenging role of national judges and lawyers
Lena Geckle, DG Justice, European Commission
- 15.00 Discussion among participants
(NGO representatives, judges, lawyers, MEPs, European Commission, Permanent Representations)
- 15.30 Wrap up

This project was funded by the European Union's Justice Programme (2014-2020).